back guarantee. In the span of just a few minutes, you can survey the overall market landscape with the leading indicator and map, identify the trading candidates set to follow the market with the list and charts, and start making trades with the integrated brokerage.

As the market changes directions, VisualTrader quickly updates, and you're ready to capture the move with new trading candidates. With the new integrated brokerage feature, Nirvana has embraced a rapid-fire trading concept. The real beauty of the program is the speed with which you can utilize a large amount of technical information. That speed may just provide that extra edge needed for maximum profits.

SOFTWARE ALLOWS TRADES TO BE ENTERED FROM CHARTS

FuturePath Trading's latest release of PhotonTrader Pro allows trades to be entered directly from charts, the company said. FuturePath also released PhotonTrader, a new trading platform designed to meet the performance demands of professional traders, but simple enough for beginning retail traders. Both PhotonTraders have multiple order-entry modules that can a technically based form of momentum swing trading based on price and volume analysis. The developers, Gary and Jason Lane, father-son team, also run a real-time chat room as well as produce video reviews going over their trades and market indexes at the website.
