BOOKS FOR TRADERS

offers strategies that can supersize your returns, and also talks about what to watch out for when investing directly in a hedge fund. Turning cash into superca$h is a way of life, not just an investing style.

funds have long relied on these markets, and now with the Internet providing direct access to these markets, retail speculators of all sizes are discovering the profitable advantages of FX trading. This book will show you how to avoid costly mistakes and give you the skill you need to carve out a small but profitable niche in the global currency markets.

Technical Analysis of The Currency Market: Classic Techniques For Profiting From Market Swings And Trader Sentiment (212 pages, $60 hardcover, 2006, ISBN 0-471-74593-6) by Boris Schlossberg, published by John Wiley

& Sons. Global currency markets combine unparalleled leverage, high short-term volatility, low execution cost, and significant long-term trends in an atmosphere of regulatory oversight that creates the nearly perfect trading environment. Multinational corporations and multibillion-dollar hedge
